

ERRATUM

Please replace the contents from section D in Part One with the following:

D—PROGRESS OF THE WORK IN THE TRIPS COUNCIL ON THE DOHA AGENDA	1.61
(A) TRIPS and Public Health	1.61
1. Eligible countries	1.63
2. Diseases covered	1.64
3. Timeline for a permanent solution	1.65
The Decision of August 30, 2003	1.66
Summary of the African Group Submission	1.74
Summary of the Group of Commonwealth Developing Countries' Report	1.75
Summary of the United States' position	1.82
The 2005 Decision on the Amendment of the TRIPS Agreement	1.83
2005: Decision on the Amendment of the TRIPS Agreement, adopted by the General Council, December 6, 2005	1.84
The First Issuance of a compulsory license within the para.6 framework	1.87
The 2008 Decision to extend deadline for accepting TRIPS Agreement amendment	1.89
Relevant activities of the World Health Organization (WHO)	1.90
(B) Art.27(3)(b), Biological Diversity, Disclosure and Traditional Knowledge	1.91
(C) Geographical indications	1.107
(D) Technology transfer	1.135
(E) Other matters	1.141
(F) Non-Violation Complaints	1.142
(G) Enforcement	1.149
(H) China	1.150
E—TRIPS NEGOTIATIONS AT THE MINISTERIAL CONFERENCES SINCE DOHA	1.152
Cancún (2003)	1.153
Geneva (2004)	1.154
Hong Kong (2005)	1.155
F—TRIPS AND ELECTRONIC COMMERCE	1.156
Draft Cancún Ministerial Text on E-Commerce	1.157
G—TRIPS AND TRADITIONAL KNOWLEDGE	1.158
The Importance of Traditional Knowledge in the Doha Context	1.158
Defining Traditional Knowledge	1.159
The Challenges Posed by Traditional Knowledge	1.162
Solutions Under Consideration	1.164
H—THE LOGIC OF TRIPS AND THE INTERNATIONAL LEGAL CONTEXT	1.170