

International Tax Systems and Planning Techniques on Checkpoint®

By Roy Saunders and Miles Dean

“Of immense help in explaining the international tax systems of various countries... competently and comprehensively written... should repay its costs many times.” – International Tax Report

From Sweet & Maxwell Publishers, International Tax Systems and Planning Techniques provides reliable comprehensive information to help your client make the right international tax decisions for multinational business ventures.

Provides your client with more facts, figures, and guidance for the successful tax management of a multinational business operation than any other single publication. Simple to use, clear to understand, thoroughly comprehensive and available on Checkpoint®.

- Identifies where high rates of tax could be incurred and shows how to adopt the necessary strategies for reducing their impact
- Includes tax strategies for a company at every stage of international participation and the all important subject of mergers and acquisitions in a detailed case study.
- Compares and contrasts the tax systems of world-wide business centers and the incentives and concessions they offer.
- Clearly explains the tax treatments of income from abroad and of income payable to non-residents

Complete coverage of the tax systems of 29 foreign jurisdictions and the United States:

- | | | | | |
|--|-------------------|------------------------|--------------------------|-----------------|
| ■ United Kingdom | ■ Switzerland | ■ Luxembourg | ■ Malta | ■ Gibraltar |
| ■ France | ■ The Netherlands | ■ The Channel Islands | ■ Republic of Singapore | ■ Liechtenstein |
| ■ Germany | ■ Australia | ■ Isle of Man | ■ Hong Kong | ■ Monaco |
| ■ United States (including links to primary law) | ■ Canada | ■ Netherlands Antilles | ■ Bahamas | ■ Panama |
| ■ Belgium | ■ Spain | ■ Cyprus | ■ Bermuda | |
| | ■ Russia | ■ Republic of Ireland | ■ British Virgin Islands | |
| | ■ India | ■ Madeira | ■ Cayman Islands | |

Also Available

International Tax Systems and Planning Techniques – Canada (WITSC) offering complete coverage of the Canadian tax system.

About the Authors

Roy Saunders is a Chartered Accountant specializing in international fiscal law and international business development. He has lectured extensively worldwide for various professional bodies including his own institute, the International Tax Planning Association (ITPA), European Study Conferences, the Economist Intelligence Unit and many others. He is on the Executive Committee of the ITPA and the editorial boards of several publications and is the author of International Tax Systems and Planning Techniques among others.

Miles Dean works with Roy Saunders at International Fiscal Services specializing in international tax law. He has written a number of articles for various publishers and publications, including The Financial Times, Resident Abroad, International Tax News and Trusts and Trustees. He also lectures regularly around the world.